YoCo Voter Guide

Tuesday, November 8th Midterm General Election

Make Your Vote Happen.

Information in this Voter's Guide is current as of the time of printing. For the most up to date information regarding elections go to vote.pa.gov

Dear Voter,

Every year is an election year, and every election is important. As we have seen, 2022 is no different. Whether it is your first time voting or your 51st time voting, it is helpful to have a plan on how you are doing it. This year presents a major opportunity for voters to make their voices heard. Pennsylvania will be electing a new Governor, Lt. Governor, and U.S. Senator. Additionally, this will be the first election held after the redistricting process precipitated by the 2020 Census.

This year, Pennsylvania's Legislative and Congressional Districts were redrawn to account for population shifts recorded in the 2020 Census. York County's State House districts remained largely the same with a few districts swapping municipalities. The changes to State Senate Districts are more pronounced due to the decision to reduce the number of times that York County is split from four to two. Our Congressional districts also look largely the same due in no small part to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania's preference for a "least-change approach."

All voters are encouraged to take the time to educate themselves on what will be on the ballot on November 8th. This guide is your one-stop shop on what to know for this upcoming election and how to make your voice heard.

Be informed. Make a Plan. Vote.

Sincerely,

Kevin J. Schreiber

President & CEO

Poll Worker Information

---

How to Become a Poll Worker

If you are interested in becoming a poll worker, fill out the Poll worker Interest Form, available here:

<https://airtable.com/shrI2NxDbcUiU2d0h>

After you submit the form, the York County Elections Office or precinct Judge of Elections will contact you. Of Course, you can also reach out to the election office to follow up. More information can be found here: <https://yorkcountypa.gov/972/Become-a-Poll-Worker>

Requirements

- You must be registered to vote in York County
  - Exceptions exist for 17-year-old high school students, who must meet additional requirements. High school students should contact the county election office for more information.
- Government officials and government employees including federal, state, county, municipal, and city are not allowed to serve as poll workers
  - Exceptions exist for district judges, notaries public, and members of the Pennsylvania National Guard.
  - Likewise, you are generally not allowed to serve if your name appears on the ballot.
- Poll workers can work full or half days. Poll workers working full days can expect to be at their polling station by 6:00 am until after the polls close at 8:00 pm.
- Counties train poll workers on their election day duties
- All poll workers are paid for their time on election day

Poll Worker Recruitment Toolkit available here

Voting Rights for Reentrants

Source: <https://www.vote.pa.gov/Register-to-Vote/Pages/Convicted-Felon,-Misdemeanant-or-Pretrial-Detainee.aspx>

Who can register to vote?

You may register and vote if you hold citizenship in the United States for at least one month before the next election, are a Pennsylvania resident and resided in your election district for at least 30 days before the next election; and will be at least 18 years of age on the day of the next election.

If you meet the above qualifications, you can register and vote if you:

- Are a pretrial detainee confined in a penal institution awaiting trial on charges of a felony or a misdemeanor
- Are convicted of a misdemeanor and are confined in a penal institution
- Were released (or will be released by the date of the next election) from a correctional facility or community confinement facility upon completion of your term of incarceration for conviction of a misdemeanor or a felony
- Are on probation or released on parole
- Are a parolee living in a community confinement center (except for state intermediate punishment (SIP) inmates)
- Are under house arrest (home confinement), regardless of conviction status or the status of the conditions of confinement

You are not eligible to register and vote if you:

- Are currently confined in a penal institution for conviction of a felony (even if you are also incarcerated for one or more misdemeanor offenses) and will not be released from confinement before the next election
- Are in a community confinement facility or other alternative correctional facility for conviction of a felony and will not be released before the date of the next election
- Were convicted of violating any provision of the Pennsylvania Election Code within the last four years.

How can you register to vote?

If you are qualified to register to vote you may apply to register using the instructions provided in the previous sections of this guide.

Please note: If you are in a penal institution, your residence for voter registration is:

- The last place you registered to vote before confinement in a penal institution; or
- Your last known address before confinement; or
- A new residence established while confined (for example, if your spouse establishes a new residence where you intend to reside upon your release from confinement).

- A penal institution or community confinement facility cannot be your residence address for registering to vote; however, you may use those locations for your mailing address.

How do you vote after registering?

- If you are confined to a penal institution, apply for an absentee ballot. Further instruction is explained in the above sections.
- If you are not confined in a penal institution, community confinement facility, or under house arrest, you may vote in person at your assigned polling place. That location is on your voter identification card or can be found using the directions in earlier sections of this guide.
